KRAZY KAT "AERO NUTS"

Krazy Kat is riding on an aeroplane and enjoying himself immensely when we see him riding in the aeroplane which is attached to a pole. The aeroplane breaks loose and it is hurled through the air with Krazy Kat in it.

He lands on a field where there are fliers making preparations for a New York to Paris hop. The race finally starts and Krazy Kat is in the lead when his plane gets lost in a cloud. He shakes the cloud and dozens of planes come out. He retrieves his own plane and starts on again. The lightning strikes his plane and breaks off the propeller and tail and then he uses the wings as oars and rows.

He sees what he thinks is the Eiffel Tower and lands on it. Suddenly he and his plane are forced up and land on the ground. The felines gets up groggy and visualizes being applauded and crowned as hero of the flight, but also this vision disappears and he finds he landed on top of an oil well and it was the oil gushing that forced him off the top.
